Director Bio

The short film “The elevator” was the first short movie that Rosine Kaboré and Lisette Pires made together. For Lisette it was her first experience as a director and Rosine the second one. Both actresses, they wanted since a long time to make a movie. Since then they made another one together “I am kenté” and others separately. And they just can’t stop anymore!

Director Quotes

We wanted to talk about feminism in a different way, it is quite normal to a woman to be confronted to this kind of situation but very anormal if it’s happening to a man.
